UPRIGHT GRAFTED JUNIPERS

WHY GRAFTED EVERGREENS? When a choice evergreen is developed by selection or breeding, its characteristics, including color, shape, habit of growth and hardiness, can be carried to its offspring by grafting. It is almost impossible to get two seedling Junipers alike because of seedling variation. Grafted evergreens cost a little more but are well worth the difference.

the all-purpose evergreen

The RED CEDAR or VIRGINIANA JUNIPER is one of the most useful and the hardiest of evergreens for the Great Plains Region. It has fine-textured foliage of bright green color which turns reddish-bronze in the winter. We can furnish sheared, balled and burlapped specimens for foundation plantings and for yard and park work. We can also furnish small trees either potted or bare-root for windbreaks, shelterbelts or hedges.

Specimen Red Cedar

FOR GENERAL LANDSCAPE USE—

RED CEDAR may be kept small or any desired SHAPE or SIZE by shearing, which requires only a few minutes a year. This shearing makes them more dense and compact. Sheared specimens are used extensively as accent points in foundation plantings and landscapes, to frame entrances, etc. BALLED AND BURLAPPED SPECIMENS, Not Prepaid.

SILVER CEDAR

The Colorado Silver Juniper

The Colorado Silver Cedar (Scopulorum Juniper) is very similar in habit of growth to the Red Cedar, except the texture of the foliage is finer and the color is a silvery green. It also can be sheared into dense, compact specimens like the Red Cedar. The sheared specimens listed and pictured vary somewhat in color and texture of foliage because they have been grown from seed. Fancy named and grafted varieties, such as Chandlers, Pathfinder and Kansas Silver (listed on page 13), were developed from the Colorado Silver Cedar but since they are grafted, each variety is uniform in color and matched specimens are possible. However, the specimens listed below make excellent foundation and landscape trees. BALLED AND BURLAPPED SHEARED SPECIMENS, Not prepaid.

BROADLEAVED EVERGREENS

Broadleaved Evergreens are a class of shrubs that retain their leaves throughout the winter. They are ideal to use in the foundation planting of the contemporary house because of their dwarf habit of growth and their pleasing combination with evergreens.

Euonymus patens

This beautiful broadleaved evergreen shrub has deep, green foliage and a compact habit of growth. In addition to its attractive foliage, it bears clusters of flowers in July and is magnificent with its scarlet-red when in full fruit in late fall or early winter. We grow three types as listed below. ALSO EXCELLENT FOR HEDGES. SEE PAGE 7.

SMALL LEAF TYPE—Has smaller leaves and is more dwarf and compact. Seldom does much fruiting. Excellent for the north side or shady planting boxes. Extremely hardy. Balled and Burlapped specimens not prepaid.

Mentor Barberry

Since this beautiful shrub holds its foliage nearly all winter, it is often classed with the Broadleaved Evergreens. When it is dug balled and burlapped, it does not have to be cut back and, therefore, gives immediate effect. As such, it makes an excellent Broadleaved Evergreen shrub, ideal for foundation plantings. A very rugged, strong, upright-growing shrub with thick, heavy, dark green leaves. It will grow anywhere, even in the hottest, driest places. Grows dense, compact and from 2 to 3 feet. Requires very little pruning or trimming. Balled and Burlapped specimens not prepaid.

POTTED ROSES

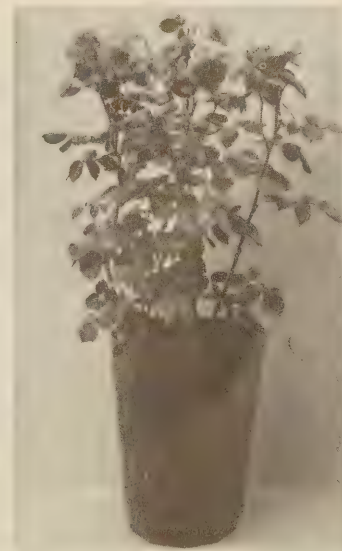

BLOOMING PLANTS IN SPECIAL REMOVABLE CONTAINERS CAN BE PLANTED ANY TIME . . . WITHOUT SETBACK OR LOSS

If it is impossible for you to plant your roses during the spring season, when the plants are dormant, you need not despair. You can plant these potted plants ANY TIME.

Early in the spring, at the proper time, we plant, in these special removable containers, in SPECIALLY PREPARED SOIL, a large number of roses (some of every variety we list). Late in May, when it begins to get too late to plant dormant roses, these fine plants are beginning to bloom and are ready for sale. Since each plant weighs approximately 12 pounds, they are very difficult to ship. So, you should drive in, pick out your plants first hand, and take them away in your car. When you see them in bloom you can be sure of getting just the variety or color you want.

PRICES: Per each price listed, plus 50 cents each. (Thus a potted plant of Mirandy would sell for $2.75 each, not prepaid. A potted plant of Crimson Glory would sell for $2.00, etc.).

MAIL ORDERS: We ship these potted roses by express or truck, charges collect. Each pot and rose weighs about 12 pounds, so 5 or 6 roses will travel as cheaply as one.

New EVERBLOOMING ROSES

All America Rose Selections.

This is a non-profit committee, nationally and internationally recognized as the most important rose testing organization. Each year, AARS scientifically tests and selects the best of each year's rose introductions for national awards. All rose entries are planted in 18 test gardens distributed throughout America. Competent judges score the entries over a period of two years, and at the end of the two year period, the top scoring entry is given the All-America Award. You can be certain that any AARS winner is one of AMERICA'S FINEST ROSES.

The Patented Hybrid Tea Roses listed below are supplied in heavy grade only.

CHRYSLER IMPERIAL—(P. P. 1167). (Pictured opposite page). AARS winner for 1953. Its iridescent color is unmatched by any other red Rose. Vivid, rich crimson with darker overtones of glowing oxblood red. Long, tapering buds opening to large flowers borne on strong stems. Abundant and semi-glossy foliage makes this an excellent garden shrub. Postpaid: Each, $2.50; 3 for $6.60.

FORTY-NINER—(P. P. 792). (Pictured on opposite page.) AARS award for 1949. Brilliantly hued bicolor. Its contrasting colors are startling in their brilliance, yet they blend together beautifully. Inside of petals is a vivid Orient Red, while the outside is a chrome yellow. The colors are lasting and bright, and the long buds open to large well-shaped blooms. A profuse bloomer, even in hot weather. Postpaid: Each, $2.50; 3 for $6.60.

MIRANDY—(P. P. 632). (Pictured opposite page.) AARS award for 1945. A strong, free-blooming plant producing large, long pointed buds of rich dark red with black shadings which open to lovely flowers of Chrysanthemum Red. The flower displays new beauties of form as the petals unfold and is at its best during sunshine and warm weather. Postpaid: Each, $2.25; 3 for $6.00.

MISSION BELLS—(P. P. 923). (Pictured on opposite page). AARS award for 1950. The pointed buds are a deep glowing salmon which open to extra large blooms of a clear shrimp pink color. Vigorous, heavily branched plants are clothed with disease-resistant coppery-green foliage. Postpaid: Each $2.00; 3 for $5.25.

MOJAVE—(P. P. 1176). (Pictured opposite page). AARS winner for last year. The color is a glowing, radiant apricot-orange, highlighted with other warm tints of nasturtium-red, scarlet and vermillion. Every long bud and perfect bloom is borne on a long, straight single stem. The plant is upright and vigorous with handsome foliage. Postpaid: Each, $2.75; 3 for $7.20.

NEW YORKER—(P. P. 823). (Pictured opposite page). The real red, red Rose! Brilliant red color that does not fade or blue in hot weather. Plant is sturdy and vigorous. The buds open slowly into very large flowers of scarlet with rosy-red undertones, overlaid with rich velvety sheen. Postpaid: Each, $2.00; 3 for $5.25.

PEACE—(P. P. 591). (Pictured opposite page). The best Rose ever created. AARS winner for 1946. The perfect buds open slowly into large, fragrant, fully double flowers. Its greatest charm is the changing panorama of colors. The buds are rich gold, edged with bright pink. As the outer petals unfold, the gold changes to canary then lightens to creamy ivory. The pink edge gradually deepens and becomes broader so the fully open flower appears sparkling pink with a creamy-yellow base. Last unusually long at all stages. Vigorous, healthy, free-blooming bush. Postpaid: Each, $2.50; 3 for $6.60.

SLEIGHBELLS—(P. P. 1004). This is the better white Rose you have been looking for. The large ovoid buds are borne singly on long stems and produce very freely. Hardy CLIMBING ROSES

Hardly anything can equal Climbing Roses in full bloom for mass display of color. They are ideal for porches, arbors, trellises and trailing over fences. All climbers are very hardy in our Great Plains Region, but we recommend winter protection in the northern states. Climbing Roses should be set 3 to 6 feet apart for mass display. We advise the use of Ra-Pid-Gro Liquid Fertilizer (page 45) when planting and every 2 to 3 weeks during the months of June, July and August. Prices are postpaid.

AMERICAN BEAUTY—(Pictured on opposite page). This is one of the old-time favorite climbing roses. The vine is very hardy, a vigorous grower, and free blooming. The extra large blooms are a lovely deep pink in color, resembling Tea Roses in shape and size. POSTPAID: Heavy Grade—Each, $1.50; 3 for $4.25.

BLAZE—(Pictured on opposite page). This is the brilliant double red climber so popular throughout the country. You'll be thrilled with the generous display of bloom in June and also with the later flowers as the plant becomes well established and the everblooming characteristics begin to show. Enjoy great clusters of 2 to 3-inch scarlet flowers on your porch, fence, pergola, or trellis. POSTPAID: Heavy Grade—Each, $1.75; 3 for $4.95.

Moraine Locust

At last, a really CLEAN tree! In addition to being thornless, it bears only male flowers, thus preventing the formation of the unsightly brown seed pods that fall off in autumn and clutter up the lawn. The fact that it does not produce seed pods contributes to its having better foliage because the strength is not used up in producing fruit, consequently the foliage is more luxuriant and holds on much longer in the fall. Beautiful dark green foliage, clean, strong, dark-colored branches, stately shape, rapid growing, long-lived, drought and heat resistant, will grow anywhere and no seed to fall or clean up. What else could you ask for? Supply very limited. Not prepaid.

(See Picture on Opposite Page). Yes, "Redbud Time in Kansas" will be known nationally if the ambitions of the Kansas Garden Clubs are realized. So beautiful and "adapted to Kansas" is this small ornamental tree, that the Garden Clubs are urging several be planted on every farm and home, as well as in the parks and along our highways. The beautiful, bright red blossoms appear in the spring before the leaves. This tree makes ideal shade or partial shade for flower beds. Since it is a legume, it does not "sap" the soil as other trees do. Not Prepaid.

SHADE AND ORNAMENTAL TREES

American Elm

We like to think of this tree as typically "American." Stately, upright growing, yet spreading, hardy and long-lived. While it is not fast growing, if given good care, it will develop into a large tree in just a few years. It is native of Kansas and deserves to be planted more than it is. The American Elm is valuable for street, yard, park, farm and wood-lot planting. Not affected by freezes. (See page 40 for seedlings.) Not Prepaid.

Chinese Elm

Because of its beauty, its extremely rapid growth, its resistance to disease and insects as well as heat and drought, the Chinese Elm has become popular. Under ordinary conditions, it grows 5 feet a year; in just a few years it becomes an excellent shade tree. It is valuable for those parts of our country where most other trees will not thrive where it is hot, dry or in alkali soil. In that part of the country where Maples, American Elm or the Honeylocust are grown, we recommend the planting of Chinese Elm only for quick shade. There are many homes which would be more attractive and more comfortable if some of these quick growing Chinese Elm were planted. (See page 40 for seedlings). Not prepaid.

Hybrid Elm

These trees have been grafted from a selected, mature parent tree which has shown every ideal characteristic for a Hybrid Elm. The Hybrid Elm, a cross between the American Elm and the Chinese Elm, shows all the stability, ruggedness and long life of the American Elm, yet it grows just as fast and is just as resistant to heat, drought and insects as the Chinese Elm. It will not be as subject to breakage from ice, snow and wind-storm. The Hybrid Elm has large leaves like the American Elm and is not twiggy like the Chinese Elm. Our supply is very limited. Not prepaid.

This is one of the best Cottonless Cottonwoods grown today, particularly from a lumber standpoint. Farm buildings built from this lumber 40 years ago are still standing and in good condition, the lumber having never warped or rotted. In some cases, the lumber was never painted. The lumber can be planed with or against the grain without chipping. In addition to being an excellent lumber tree, it makes a good long-lived shade tree, being more resistant to wind-damage than the common Cottonwood. You can make a nice profit from the waste land on your farm with the Lydick Cottonwood. Very hardy and easy to grow. Not prepaid.

LAWN SEEDS AND GRASSES

the new U-3 GRASS

U-3 GRASS, developed by the United States Department of Agriculture, is something new and different in creeping grasses. In fact, it still bears its experimental number, U-3, instead of a name. U-3 GRASS is similar to Velvet Grass (also a type of Bermuda) in texture, but far superior in every other respect.

The color of U-3 GRASS is a dark, rich, satisfying green lasting longer into the cold winter weather and appearing earlier in the spring than Velvet grass and common Bermuda. Mowing is not a problem with the low-creeping growth habit and fine texture of U-3 GRASS. Its thick, carpet-like turf eases the crabgrass and weed control problem so common to lawns in this area.

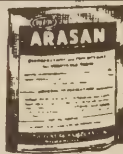

U-3 GRASS is sold by the square foot of sod. When planted according to instructions (furnished with each order), each square foot of sod will plant from 20 to 50 square feet of lawn area. It should be planted in May or June and usually becomes a solid lawn by July or August. Our supply is very limited. Order yours early to be sure it will be shipped at the proper time. CAUTION: U-3 GRASS does not produce seed. It can be started only from the sod or roots. We recommend U-3 GRASS for the sunny lawn area only.

ARASAN SEED DISINFECTANT

Used especially as a disinfectant for Vegetable Seeds. This famous Dupont chemical increases stands and yields by reducing losses due to seed decay, damping-off and seedling blights.

It is also recommended for the treatment of corn, grass seeds, legumes and Gladiola bulbs.

Arasan is easy to use—merely fill a jar half full of seed, add the disinfectant and shake. Full instructions are on the package.

Bermuda Grass Roots

Our EXTRA HARDY strain is ideal for Football Fields and Playgrounds. In this region, Bermuda grass lawns must be established from the roots of a strain of proven hardiness (seed of Bermuda grass comes from southern, non-hardy strains). Our EXTRA HARDY strain of Bermuda grass has survived all our floods, drought and cold weather of the last 25 years.

One bushel of Bermuda grass roots will plant between 200 and 300 square feet of lawn area. Between May 15th and July 15th is the best time to plant. It should not be planted in the fall or before May 1st in the spring. Complete instructions for planting are furnished with each order. Prices are not prepaid.

1 to 10 bu., $1.95 per bu. of roots. 10 bu. or over, $1.75 per bu. of roots.

Milorganite

Milorganite is a scientifically prepared natural and organic plant food and not a chemical or synthetic product. For this reason, it is long-lasting and non-burning. It does not have the "shot-in-the-arm" effect with the let-down that follows. Its organic or humus properties tend to build up the physical condition of the soil. This is opposite with many chemical fertilizers. Milorganite is rich in long-lasting nitrogen, the most important element needed for healthy plant growth. Besides phosphorus and potassium, it contains liberal amounts of iron, magnesium and sulphur. Deficiency of these elements cause chlorosis (sickly yellowing of the foliage of many plants including grass), a condition common to soils in this particular region. For this and many other reasons, we believe Milorganite is the best fertilizer for lawns, flowers, gardens, trees and shrubs in the Great Plains Region. Prices are not prepaid, and are subject to change without notice.

It pays to mix peatmoss with the soil when planting Evergreens, shrubs, flowers and trees. LANDSCAPE SERVICE

Again we are in a position to offer complete landscape planning service to our customers. Included in our personnel are four graduate Landscape Architects, qualified by special training and widespread experience to meet any of your problems in landscape planning or artistic designing. In over twenty-eight years of landscape practice in the Great Plains Region, we have designed and drawn plans for hundreds of urban and rural home grounds, estates, special-purpose gardens, municipal parks, institutions, public building grounds, cemeteries, golf courses, residential and industrial subdivisions, etc.

With our modern and correct methods of landscaping, our landscape architects must deal with many factors. In our region, a thorough knowledge of planting materials is of supreme importance. We must know the range of use and which plants are hardy, and which are not hardy in each particular area. All of the characteristics of trees, shrubs and other planting stock must be considered, such as form and habit of growth, color arrangement and texture, exposure to sun and shade, etc.

Tuberous Begonias

GROW THEM IN POTS

Very few flowers can equal the magnificent beauty of these big double Camellia-flowered Begonias. They make exquisite indoor plants that bloom over a long period of time. After they have been started indoors, Begonias can be set outside, after danger of frost. If you want these bulbs for indoor plants or want to start them indoors for outdoor plants, please tell us when you order, and we can send them to you as early as February 1.

FOR A SHADY GARDEN SPOT

There are few plants that will give you more color for that cool shaded spot in your yard than Tuberous Begonias. A bed of them, with their broad attractive foliage and beautiful flowers, will be a beauty spot in your garden from spring until frost.

Since Tuberous Begonias delight in a rich soil, we ship them to you packed in Horticultural Peat Moss. This can be mixed with the soil in which you plant your Begonias. In this manner, you will be assured of finer, healthier plants. Complete planting instructions accompany each order. POSTPAID.
